

THE DRUNKEN HORSE LONDON DRY

Small Batch Gin | Mini Bottle

The Drunken Horse is an award-winning gin that combines exotic botanicals from around the globe. One botanical that stands out is Timut, an exceptionally rare pepper from the Nepalese mountains. This pepper provides vibrant aromas and a unique citrusy flavour that will astound even the most adventurous palates.

Tasting notes

Color

Crystal clear

Aroma

Notes of freshly peeled lime, grapefruit and lemongrass

Taste

The palate is fresh and slightly earthy with hints of cardamom and coriander

Finish

The Timut pepper not only adds spicy notes, but it also brings back the citric notes of the first wave of sensations.