

GRAHAM'S 1940 SINGLE HARVEST

Vintage Tawny Port | The Master

A particularly rare Graham's 1940, this Single Harvest Tawny Port nicknamed "The Master" was aged for 79 years in seasoned oak cask before being bottled in 2019. Only 226 bottles were bottled from Cask# 1, this is a true rarity and a chance to taste an outstanding wine produced before World War 2. Graham's produces outstanding Vintage Ports, aged in bottle and Tawny Port, aged in oak casks. This old Tawny Port epitomizes Graham's hallmark complexity, elegance and balance. The wine was made from grapes grown at Quinta dos Malvedos in Douro Valley in northern Portugal.

Tasting notes

Taste

Silky, luxurious and intense with a long aftertaste