

RENEGADE LAKE ANTOINE LOWER CRATER

Pre-Cask Rum | Pot Still | Single Farm Origin

Renegade Rum Lake Antoine is made from a variety of sugar cane called Purple Tallboy, grown at the Ball Pasture Field, which stands on the Terroir known as Lower Lake South. Each Renegade bottling comes from a single farm. Their rums are unaged, made with fresh, pure sugar cane juice as a primary ingredient. Natural in colour and texture, unsweetened and non-chill-filtered.

Tasting notes

About Renegade Rum Distillery The distillery is located in Grenada, a small, mountainous island of volcanic origin, characterised by tropical moist forest vegetation, located about 90 miles north of Trinidad and Venezuela. Renegade Rum Distillery is an industry-changing project from the man behind the renaissance of Islay's Bruichladdich single malt whisky and Ireland's groundbreaking, terroir-driven Waterford Distillery. His vision is to produce the most profound rum the world has ever seen, focused on the cane, terroir and provenance. Renegade Rums are modern masterpieces carefully designed to bring out the individuality of terroir, the purity of long fermentation and thoughtful distillation.
