

MACALLAN SHERRY OLOROSO 1994 / 28 YEARS

OLD

Samaroli Magnifico | Cask #11325 | 2022 Release

Another outstanding whisky to the Magnifico Limited Series. A masterpiece created one step at a time and released once a year. This time, Samaroli presents a 24-year-old Macallan aged in a single cask that previously held Sherry oloroso wine. Only 269 bottles were filled in Scotland in 2022, making it a small release that whisky enthusiasts wouldn't want to miss.

Tasting notes

Aroma

Long-dozing sulphurous and woody notes. A range of strident yet oily scents.

Taste

Slightly saline, sweet on the palate with notes of succulent cherries, dried fruits and quince jam

About Independent Bottler Samaroli: Samaroli is probably Italy's most renowned independent bottler, considered a visionary by most. Impeccable taste and an eye for aesthetics have given numerous of his bottlings a worthy place in the pantheon of whisky and rum giants. Today the production is under Antonio Bleve's direction, who has collaborated with Samaroli for many years and shares the passion and philosophy of the house. Antonio Bleve continues his quest for exceptional casks, relying on the brand's historical relationships and new interactions, making their latest bottlings increasingly in demand.
