

S'PEATY BLEND 1995 / 19 YO

SaMaroli | Cask No. 47 | 2014 Release

Speyside, Orkney and Islay single malt whiskies contributed to this outstanding assemblage that resulted in a luscious peated whisky, full-bodied with a complex profile. Limited edition with numbered bottles.

Tasting notes

Aroma

Aromas of lapsang souchong tea, dates and biscuits

Taste

Round with subtle sweet hints of caramel and toast.

Finish

Hints of rhubarb and hay mingle with a warm and persistent sensation.

About Independent Bottler Samaroli: Samaroli is probably Italy's most renowned independent bottler, considered a visionary by most. Impeccable taste and an eye for aesthetics have given numerous of his bottlings a worthy place in the pantheon of whisky and rum giants. Today the production is under Antonio Bleve's direction, who has collaborated with Samaroli for many years and shares the passion and philosophy of the house. Antonio Bleve continues his quest for exceptional casks, relying on the brand's historical relationships and new interactions, making their latest bottlings increasingly in demand.