Whisky Library Private Edition - Seoul South Korea Samaroli Magnifico, a single malt scotch whisky distilled in 1995 at the Springbank distillery, matured at Campbeltown and bottled in Scotland in 2022 from selected cask n. 53. This is a limited edition of only 267 bottles.

Tasting notes

Aroma

Fresh fruit heading towards over-ripening, lavender and spring shrubs.

Taste

The palate is salty, with hints of sulphur and a subtle fruitiness with that after-taste of whisky.

About Independent Bottler Samaroli: Samaroli is probably Italy's most renowned independent bottler, considered a visionary by most. Impeccable taste and an eye for aesthetics have given numerous of his bottlings a worthy place in the pantheon of whisky and rum giants. Today the production is under Antonio Bleve's direction, who has collaborated with Samaroli for many years and shares the passion and philosophy of the house. Antonio Bleve continues his quest for exceptional casks, relying on the brand's historical relationships and new interactions, making their latest bottlings increasingly in demand.
