

IRISH SINGLE MALT 1998 / 23 YO

Samaroli | Cask No.10049 | 2021 Release

We are pleased to announce the expansion of our Samaroli collection. This remarkable Irish whiskey is composed of a blend of Irish malt and ex-bourbon casks and it has enjoyed an extensive resting period from 1998 to 2021 before being bottled at 40% ABV by Independent bottler Samaroli. Just 282 bottles from Cask N° 10049 have been released.

Tasting notes

Color

Deep, golden ground colour.

Aroma

In the nose, it surprises us with a complex development of olfactory tones.

Taste

A textured base of ripe fruit and wet meadow opens up a range of other flavours that are drier and more mineral.

Finish

Long-lasting, with pronounced hints of dried fruits.

About Independent Bottler Samaroli: Samaroli is probably Italy's most renowned independent bottler, considered a visionary by most. Impeccable taste and an eye for aesthetics have given numerous of his bottlings a worthy place in the pantheon of whisky and rum giants. Today the production is under Antonio Bleve's direction, who has collaborated with Samaroli for many years and shares the passion and philosophy of the house. Antonio Bleve continues his quest for exceptional casks, relying on the brand's historical relationships and new interactions, making their latest bottlings increasingly in demand.
