

ABERLOUR 2012 / 8 YEARS OLD

WITL | Single Malt Whisky | Single Cask #800916

The scrumptious eight-year Aberlour was finished in First fill Oloroso sherry quarter for almost a year. The small-sized barrel allowed a better marriage of flavors between the Sherry and the whisky. Aberlour was bottled by independent bottler Whisky Is The Limit at cask strength of 58.5%. Very limited, only 225 bottles have been released.

Tasting notes

Color

Straw yellow with golden reflections.

Aroma

Candied sultanas, figs and bitter orange combined with light notes of cinnamon, nutmeg, tobacco, honey and fresh yeast.

Taste

A multitude of spices reminiscent of freshly baked gingerbread, ground mustard and oak wood.

Finish

A spice cake dipped in sherry.

Whisky Is The Limit (WITL) Whisky Is The Limit is an independent bottler from Switzerland that specializes in small casks bottlings. From the Producer "New adventures and a new identity. It was only after years in the world of whisky that the project of independent bottling came into being. It is the result of years of meetings and tastings that allowed me to continue this new activity. Selecting the casks that represent my world and my vision of whisky is an exciting but difficult task."
