

MACALLAN CONCEPT NO.3

David Carson | Single Malt Whisky

This limited-edition single malt is the third and last bottling in the Macallan Concept Series. Concept Number 3 brings together whisky-making and graphic design through a collaboration with David Carson, one of today's most influential and revolutionary graphic designers. The whisky was bottled in 2020 and designed to display the richness of first-fill sherry butts and the sweetness of ex-bourbon casks. The balance and spiciness come from the carefully selected refill and Virgin American Oak casks.
