

MACALLAN MAGNUM

Masters of Photography 2018 Release

The Magnum edition is the seventh release of The Macallan Masters of Photography, a limited series that marked the opening of the new Macallan distillery. This luxurious and world-class collectable set of images is presented in a stunning archive-style gift box. It includes a 70cl limited-release whisky, a selection of six signed prints, one from each photographer, and an exclusive book of photography. The impressive collection of images was taken by six world-renowned Magnum photographers - Steve McCurry, Martin Parr, Paolo Pellegrin, Mark Power, Gueorgui Pinkhasov and Alec Soth - capturing different looks of the iconic distillery from genesis to completion.

Tasting notes

Taste

Candied dried fruits and a butterscotch sweetness with a tickling of spice that moves into a honeyed nut note

Finish

Medium to long finish ending in sweet earthy peat notes

About the Distillery Macallan was founded by Alexander Reid in 1824, becoming one of Scotland's first legal distilleries. Located on the banks of the River Spey, a region with the ideal climate that creates unique conditions for whisky production. The reputation of The Macallan is built on a product of outstanding quality and distinctive character, founded upon a set of guiding principles. From place to process, people and passion, the Six Pillars are the backdrop to The Macallan's unique spirit. Today the new Macallan distillery and visitor experience marry their whisky-making heritage with the innovative vision. Newly designed by internationally acclaimed architects, Rogers Stirk Harbour + Partners, the iconic evolution of the home of The Macallan embodies the care and superior craftsmanship that goes into every bottle of their single malts.
