

MORTLACH 18 YEARS

Single Malt Whisky

An official bottling from the Mortlach Distillery, the oldest and first distillery founded in Dufftown. This is a special series of old and rare whiskies and this version is no longer produced. Aged in European oak sherry seasoned butts, American oak hogsheads and European oak refill casks.

Tasting notes

Color

Golden amber with coppery tones

Aroma

Sherry, dried fruit and boiled English sweets with toffee apple.

Taste

Sherry, dried fruit and boiled English sweets with toffee apple.

Finish

Burnt fruitcake with spice and apricot

About the Distillery The Mortlach Distillery was established in 1823 by James Findlater. Becoming the first legal distillery in Dufftown. Today most of its production is used in John Walker & Sons whisky blends and owned by Diageo.