

NORTH BRITISH 1960 / 58 YO

Single Grain Scotch Whisky | Incorporation Edition

The first bottling from North British Distillery, an exceptional single cask, single grain scotch whisky matured for 58 years in a Hogshead cask, bottled at a natural cask strength of 51.6%, free of colouring or chill-filtration. V Very limited only 222 bottles were released and they are part of the Incorporation Edition. Each bottle is presented in a handmade oak box, carefully crafted to reflect the quality, rarity and age of the whisky. Included is a stitched booklet, hand-signed and individually numbered by Alan Kilpatrick, the distillery's Managing Director.

Tasting notes

Color

Amber

Aroma

The bouquet is characterised by butterscotch, caramelised pineapple and hints of coconut.

Taste

The taste reveals a rich delight of toasted oak, cinnamon and cloves.

Finish

A high quality finish playing on the flavours of spicy caramel and molasses.

The North British Distillery is one of Scotland's oldest and largest producers of Scotch grain whisky. The company distributes an expansive range of distilling and maturation processes, including grain spirit - the basis for blended whisky - and its by-products.